Dr. Hoffmann's Sanatorium

- Kafka's Fourth Novel By Keralino Sandrovich -

---

Performed in Japanese

From Nov. 7 to 24, KAAT proudly presents "Dr. Hoffmann's Sanatorium," the latest work by the playwright and director Keralino Sandrovich, a leading Japanese contemporary dramatist renowned for his uniquely individual and imaginative creations.

For this production, 56-year-old Keralino Sandrovich will radically transform KAAT's proscenium-style Main Hall to stage this work whose title is the name of the hospital where Franz Kafka – the great Prague-born novelist he regards so highly – died in 1924 at the age of 40.

As one of the most influential writers of the 20th century, Kafka is renowned for masterworks such as "Amerika, aka The Man who Disappeared," "The Trial" and "The Castle." However, in this fictional play Kera has someone finding the author's unpublished fourth novel ... with all kinds of unforeseen results.

So it's Kera meets Kafka at KAAT – surely one of 2019's must-see theater events.
